About the Kota

The Courtyard · https://the-haven.co/docs/kota/

The Kota is the conceptual space for our live Sunday happenings, which happen most weeks.

It’s somewhere to meet and connect with like-spirited people, laugh and play with prompts, and share in the caring and compassionate energy of the group.

You are welcome to just come and be. There’s never any pressure to get actively involved. Just a gentle invitation to have a mug of something tasty, in the company of friendly Haven folks.

Why a “Kota”?

A Kota is a wilderness hut, found in rural Lapland, where Sámi reindeer herders would traditionally take refuge.

They are shelters of belonging for anyone and everyone. Somewhere to find warmth, rest, food, and connection with other passers-by.

This is a space for stories, stillness, songs, silliness, and silence.

The Haven Kota was created for us to gather, just as we are. To be. Participate. Absorb. Slow down. Pause. Observe. Without urgency.
