Update your notification preferences

Manage Your Account · https://the-haven.co/docs/notification-preferences/

Embedded media: https://the-haven.co/wp-content/uploads/2025/06/Notification-Preferences.m4v

You have full control over which notifications you want to receive and how. There are two ways to get notified of activity updates: email and web. Email notifications are emailed to you, web notifications appear through the bell at the top of the Haven screen.

You may not want to receive an email for everything but still want to see what you've missed when you login. This is where you can manage that.

Go to your notification preferences here.