Update your payment information

Manage Your Account · https://the-haven.co/docs/update-your-payment-information/

If your card has expired or changed, or you'd like to use a different payment method, you can easily update your details in your account.

If you use PayPal for automatic payments, you can do it directly through your PayPal account. Here is information on how to do that.

If you use Stripe, you should be able to add new card details through the Subscription Settings Page.
