

STORY

What is a personal experience or story that comes to mind with these words?

ANOTHER ANGLE

Unpick the phrase and look at it from different angles. What else could it mean? What else do you see in there? How else could it be interpreted?

FIRST THOUGHTS

What are your initial thoughts, feelings, and interpretations in response to these words?

Note down anything it reminds you of (i.e. stories, people, events, experiences etc)

THE SENSES

If you filter these words through your senses, what would they smell like? What flavour do they have? What sound do they make? How do they appear (shape, tone, size, etc)? What would they feel like to touch?

LET INSPIRATION FLOW

What are you drawn to explore? What would you like to play with? What questions does this phrase bring up for you?

You might consider:

- Creative writing – e.g. a poem, parable, or story inspired by the phrase
- Knowledge – sharing research and/or expertise about a relevant interest, topic, or field
- Instructions – Creating a "how-to" guide, recipe, or manual for something related to the phrase
- Drawing – a graphic novel, satirical sketch, or character
- Art – visual art, photography, collage, etc, inspired by the phrase
- Culture – explore the social history and contribution of a cultural movement, person, or location that came to mind with the phrase
- Film, TV, and Books – write about a favourite movie, TV show, or book that this phrase reminded you of
- Music – write a music review, highlight a favourite band/artist, or create a playlist related to the phrase

REFLECTIONS

Have you uncovered anything helpful or surprising while exploring these words?

TO BE EXPLORED...